

Doctoral Fellow Diabetes Nursing

Job ID: 019526

Salary: £36,317 per annum, including London Weighting Allowance , plus additional £6,000 market supplement per annum.

Posted: 26-Mar-2021 Closing date: 25-Apr-2021

Business unit: Nursing, Midwifery & Palliative Care Department: Care in Long Term Conditions

Contact details: Professor Angus Forbes , angus.forbes@kcl.ac.uk

Waterloo Campus Research

Save for later

App
(<https://m>

Back to search results \(https://jobs.kcl.ac.uk/gb/en/search-results?keywords=019526&s=1\)

Job description

The Foundation of European Nurses in Diabetes (FEND) Doctoral Fellowships have been created to give diabetes nurses the opportunity to undertake a PhD project the important clinical project relevant to the health and care needs of people with diabetes. The Fellows will work with the support of the current FEND Chair in Clinical Diat Professor Angus Forbes (who will supervise their PhD) and the wider diabetes research team at King's College London. A training and development package will be pr the post-holders to become a competent researcher. Applicants from across Europe are welcomed and while students will need to spend some time in London they wi conduct their study in their own country. The salary package offered includes a market supplement in addition to salary of £6,300 and the PhD Fees are also included. T Doctoral Fellowships available. All applicants should be members of FEND (<https://www.fend.org/membership> (<https://www.fend.org/membership>))

This post will be offered on an a fixed-term contract for 3 years

This is a full-time - 100% full time equivalent

Key responsibilities

- Undertake course and training necessary for completing PhD
- Development of clinically important study topic that will meet the requirements of the PhD.
- Development of a project plan and securing any necessary ethical or research governance permission under the direction of the supervisor
- With supervisions complete a systematic review of the literature relevant to their PhD
- Participate in events to promote research outputs and the wider FEND clinical academic programme- key diabetes scientific meetings (including the FEND conferenc
- Develop and contribute to publications of their work for high quality journals
- Attend regular supervision sessions with project supervisors
- Observe academic regulations

Skills, knowledge, and experience

Essential criteria

- Have an MSc (or equivalent)
- Have written and spoken English at a minimum level of International English Language Test Score (IELTS) of 6.4
- Registered nurse working in diabetes

Further information

The scheduled date for the interviews for these posts will be the afternoon of the 11th of May. The interviews will be held virtually (via MS Teams or Zoom).

This post is subject to Disclosure and Barring Service and Occupational Health clearance.

Apply now (https://my.corehr.com/pls/kclrecruit/erq_jobspec_version_4.display_form?p_company=1&p_internal_external=E&p_display_in_irish=N&p_process_typ)

Save for later

Email this job to:

Your name

Recipient's Email address

Sen

Get tailored job recommendations based on your interests.

Get Started

Get notified for similar jobs

You'll receive updates once a week

your@email.com

Equality, diversity and inclusion

King's is an inclusive and welcoming university. We embrace diversity and want everyone to be able to bring their whole selves to work and succeed. We promote flexible working as a key enabler of inclusion.

Representation at King's

There are number of areas where we are underrepresented at King's. We particularly encourage applications from those who are BME and/or are LGBTQ+ and/o disability.

Share this job

Information to help you with your application.

How we recruit (<https://jobs.kcl.ac.uk/gb/en/how-we-recruit>)

Benefits of working at King's

Competitive pay

We offer a salary competitive within the sector. King's is proud to be an accredited London Living Wage employer.

Excellent pensions

You'll join one of our highly competitive pension schemes.

Families and carers

We offer leave and assistance to support and caring commitment:

Time off

In addition to public holidays, you'll receive 27 days' paid leave each year (30, if you have a clinical contract) and four extra days at Christmas.

Flexible working

Our flexible working provisions are designed to help you to balance your personal and professional lives.

Wellbeing, community and su

We offer discounted gym membership facilities, an employee assistance program, free lectures and more

Connect with us

Career site cookie settings (<https://jobs.kcl.ac.uk/gb/en/cookiesettings>)

Personal information (<https://jobs.kcl.ac.uk/gb/en/emailpersonalinfo>)

Recruitment privacy policy (https://cdn.phenompeople.com/CareerConnectResources/KCLOGB/en_gb/desktop/assets/images/recruitment-privacy-policy.pdf)

Contact us (<mailto:recruitment@kcl.ac.uk>)

(/)

Terms & conditions (<https://www.kcl.ac.uk/terms>) King's Privacy policy (<https://www.kcl.ac.uk/terms/privacy>)

Modern slavery statement (<https://www.kcl.ac.uk/governancezone/finance/modern-slavery-act-transparency-statement>)

Accessibility (<https://www.kcl.ac.uk/sitehelp/accessibility>)